The Financial Law Institute is a department within the Law School of the University of Ghent, Belgium. The research activities undertaken within the Institute focus on various issues of company and financial law, including private and public law of banking, capital markets regulation, company law and corporate governance.

The Working Paper Series, launched in 1999, aims at promoting the dissemination of the research results of different researchers within the Financial Law Institute to the broader academic community. The use and further distribution of the Working Papers is allowed for scientific purposes only. Working papers are published in their original language (Dutch, French, English or German) and are provisional.

Overzicht Rechtspraak Privaat Bankrecht

E. Wymeersch

Abstract

This paper contains a review of Belgian case law in the field of credit transactions including leasing and factoring, documentary credit and bank guarantees. It also reviews the case law with respect to the use of cheques and of bills of exchange. All Belgian cases rendered in the period 1992-1998 are analysed, reviewed and commented. The paper is a part of a larger paper to be published with Maarten Dambre and Koen Troch, both of Ghent University, in Tijdschrift Privaatrecht België.
